Your Perceived Personality

The following personality statements will be used to talk about your perceived personality. There is no absolute right or wrong question (though some answers may turn out to be true in certain situations and untrue in others.) Therefore your answer should be marked in general for discussion purposes.

Acknowledgment

I understand that this evaluation is to help discover if altar work and/or spiritual personal training is a good fit for me at this time. Therefore, I am committed to willingly submit to the direction and leadership of the overseeing pastor to recommend the best volunteer path for me. I understand that this is a non-paid volunteer opportunity to serve here at my church and I am willing and able to attend meetings and trainings when called upon to do so. I further understand that accountability is an important discipline in this ministry because of the work that God is doing in the lives of others.
